Subject: RA Weekly Issue Papers

All,

Attached are the briefing papers which WPD uploaded to the sharepoint site this afternoon.

I would point out that the 404 paper has the most recent information on the status of the process. We have not received any additional submittals from FDEP and don't anticipate any tomorrow. I have put in place a process to evaluate next steps should we receive a document (and particularly whether we need to look at it over the long weekend). If we don't receive any other documents, then the Team will finish out their work week and return to this project next Tuesday. I will be available tomorrow via phone, except from approximately 9:30 – 11:30 when I will be on a plane.

Please let me know if you have any questions. I hope you all have a very nice weekend.

Jeaneanne
